1. CATHEDRAL SQUARE (Arsenalo g. 1)

☉ Mon-Sun 7:00–19:00, www.katedra.lt

The Cathedral of St. Stanislaus and St. Vladislav is the most important cathedrals for Lithuania's Catholics. St. Kazimir's chapel is one of the most impressive pieces of early Baroque architecture in Vilnius, and you can even visit the adjacent Bell Tower. www.bpmuziejus.lt

Next to the Cathedral you will see the Palace of the Grand Dukes of Lithuania, ☉ Tue, Wed, Fri, Sat 10:00-18:00, Thu 10:00-20:00, Sun 10:00-16:00, €3. www.valdovurumai.lt

2. GEDIMINAS TOWER (Arsenalo g. 5)

☉ 04-09: Mon-Sun 10:00-21:00, 10-03: Mon-Sun 10:00-18:00, 4 €. www.inm.lt

Located on Gediminas Hill, the museum within Gediminas Tower displays reconstructed models of castles from the 14th-17th centuries; all of which were key features in the development of Vilnius as a city. Entry to the museum is the only part our guests have to pay for, but to entrance and walk up to the tower's courtyard is completely free, meaning the great panoramic views of the city are free to everyone. A cable car also runs from the hill down to Arsenalo Street – 2 €.

3. ENSEMBLE OF ST. ANNE AND BERNARDINE CHURCH (Maironio g. 8, 10)

St. Anne's Church is one of the few red-brick churches in Vilnius, and is a masterpiece of late Gothic-era architecture. It has survived the last 500 years without any alterations, and has become one of the many symbols of Vilnius. Next door is the Bernardine Church. www.bernardinuansamblis.lt

Worth visiting:
Church Heritage Museum (in the Church of St. Michael the Archangel, Šv. Mykolo g. 9), ☉ Tue-Sat 11:00-18:00, 4,5 €. www.bpmuziejus.lt

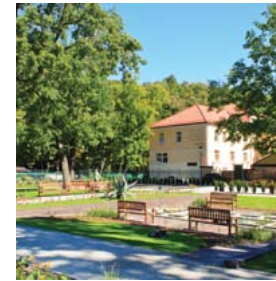

4. THE REPUBLIC OF UŽUPIS (Užupis)

A (thankfully joking!) self-proclaimed republic of artists and Bohemians, Užupis has its own constitution, president, anthem and bishop. With the figureheads out of the way, Užupis is also home to seven bridges, two churches and one of the oldest graveyards in Vilnius. The district's guardian – The Bronze Angel of Užupis – stands proudly in its main square.
