Vilnius is truly a city unlike any other. Once experienced, its unique charm and beauty can never be forgotten. Countless people have fallen in love with it over the years, but no one can fully capture its magical essence in words, not even poets or guidebook writers.

The best way to get to know Vilnius is to stroll around it at leisure and experience it in all its sensual glory. Enjoy a coffee at any one of the numerous outdoor café tables and see how serene the locals look as they go about their daily lives. Dine out at one of the city’s many excellent restaurants and marvel at the excellence and diversity of the culinary scene. Enjoy a night out on the town and revel in the goodwill and openness of Vilnius’s fun-loving population.

Vilnius is a superb example of how history and modernity can harmoniously coexist. The Old Town and surrounding city centre are a perfectly preserved mosaic of historic architectural styles, while just across the peacefully flowing River Neris a sleek new skyline testifies to Vilnius’s dynamic entrepreneurial spirit.

And if you manage to tear your gaze away from the abundance of beautiful buildings and beguiling shop window displays, you will also notice how the entire city is ringed by vast stretches of lush green foliage. Vilnius is a delightfully green city that boasts many beautiful parks and countless quaint, tree-lined streets. It’s quite simply the perfect city for a meandering walk or a leisurely bike ride.

Vilnius has a proud historical heritage which is there for ever-growing numbers of visitors to enjoy. The Vilnius Tourism Manual contains everything you need to know to make your stay as pleasurable, convenient and safe as possible. You may find it difficult to put Vilnius into words, but that’s love for you.

Vilnius is a UNESCO World Heritage Site, and it’s not hard to see why with so many wonderful historic sights. The city’s extraordinary appearance of historic continuity is all the more amazing when you consider its turbulent history. But Vilnius is now back where it rightly belongs – at the heart of Europe – and this most quintessentially European of cities has quickly gained a reputation as being a most charming, delightful and – it has to be said – magical place. Come and see for yourself!
1.1 General information about Lithuania and Vilnius

Location/Territory
Lithuania is situated on the eastern coast (shore) of the Baltic Sea and covers 65,300 sq. km – it is the largest of the three Baltic countries, mostly fertile lowland, peppered with many lakes. About 30% of Lithuania is covered by forests. There are 2800 lakes larger than 0.5 hectares and 18 rivers longer than 100 kilometres in Lithuania. The length of coastline is 99 km.

The capital city is Vilnius. Vilnius occupies an area of about 400 sq. km of which 20.2% approximately is developed and the remainder is green belt (43.9% approx.) and water (2.1% approx.). As calculated by the National Geographic Institute of France in 1989, the geographical centre of Continental Europe lies in Lithuania (26 km north of Vilnius).

Borders
Baltic Sea 90 km
Belarus 678.8 km
Kaliningrad (Russia) 290 km
Latvia 610.3 km
Poland 103.7 km

Population
The population of Lithuania totaled 2,988 million (Statistics of Lithuania, 2012)

Vilnius population is 526,356 inhabitants: Lithuanians 59.4%, Polish 23%, Russian 10.3% and other 7.3%.

Religion
Lithuania is mostly Roman Catholic, while Russian Orthodox, Evangelical Lutheran and Baptist believers are also represented.

Language
The state language is Lithuanian. It is one of the oldest languages in Europe and has many common features with Sanskrit. Most citizens of Lithuania's larger cities (Vilnius, Kaunas and Klaipėda) will speak English, especially if they work in the service industry. Russian and to a lesser extent Polish are widely spoken in Vilnius.

Government
Parliamentary Republic.

Membership
EU, NATO, WB, WTO, Schengen Area

Local time
The time in Lithuania in winter is GMT+2, in summer GMT+3.

Climate
The climate of Lithuania is transitional between continental and maritime. The average annual temperature is +6.1 degrees Celsius, in January being -5 and +17 degrees Celsius in July. The average precipitation is about 661 mm per year.

Money and costs
The national currency of Lithuania is Litas (LTL, Lt), which exist in notes of 10, 20, 50, 100, 200 and 500 Lt. The smaller unit is called centas (cent, ct), 1 Lt = 100 ct. The coins are of 1, 2, 5 Lt and 1, 2, 5, 10, 20 and 50 cent. Litas is pegged to the European Union currency Euro. 1 € = 3.4528 Lt. Foreign currencies can be easily exchanged in banks. Use of credit cards is common and wide spread. ATMs can be found in banks, post offices, shops and on the streets. Most establishments (hotels, restaurants and stores) accept credit cards.

Traveller’s cheques can be redeemed for cash in hotels and banks, but cannot be used as currency in other establishments. For those planning trips outside of major urban areas it is best to take cash as ATMs are less plentiful.

More information on local money is available on Internet site of the Bank of Lithuania www.lbank.lt

Lithuania has a value-added tax (VAT, pridėtinės vertės mokestis PVM) of 21% (with some exceptions), and it is automatically included in all costs. If you are pleased with a service, you may tip the waiter 5 or 10% of your bill, although it is not compulsory. Bargaining is possible at markets.

1.3 History

Years ago

7th – 2nd century BC – The first Baltic tribes establish themselves on the territory of present-day Lithuania.

1009 – Lithuania is first mentioned in a written text when the Kvedlinburgh Chronicle states that Archbishop Brunonus was hit over the head by pagans in Lituae and went to heaven.

1236 – Duke Mindaugas unites local chieftains to defeat the Livonian knights at the Battle of Saulė, thereby establishing the state of Lithuania.

1253 – Duke Mindaugas is crowned Lithuania’s first king on July 6. This day is now celebrated as the Day of Lithuanian Statehood.

1323 – Vilnius is first mentioned as the capital of Lithuania when Grand Duke Gediminas officially invites Western European merchants and craftsmen to settle in the city.

1387 – An alliance between Lithuania and Poland is formed after Grand Duke Jogaila marries Polish Princess Jadwiga. Vilnius is granted municipal rights. Lithuania is the last pagan state to convert to Christianity.

1410 – The Lithuanian army, led by cousins King Jogaila and Grand Duke Vytautas, achieve a resounding victory against the Teutonic knights in the historic battle of Grünwald (also known as Tannenberg and Žalgiris).

1495 – The first goldsmith and sewing craft guilds are established. Vilnius flourishes as a major Eastern European trading and cultural centre.

1522 – Pranciškus Skoryna establishes the first printing house in Vilnius. The city becomes one of the great book printing centres of Europe. Vilnius also flourishes as a city of merchants and craftsmen.

1569 – The Lubin Union, which results in the Polish-Lithuanian Commonwealth, leads to a loss of status for Vilnius. Polish becomes the state language.

1618 – Lithuania declares independence on February 16.

1795 – Following the third partition of the Lithuanian-Polish state, Lithuania is annexed to Russia. Vilnius is plundered.

1831 – A rebellion against Russian rule fails resulting in the closure of Vilnius University, the conversion of Catholic churches to Orthodox churches, and the enforced use of Russian in Lithuanian schools.

1864–1904 – Another failed uprising against Russian rule leads to even harsher oppression and more stringent Russification policies.

1918 – Lithuania declares independence on February 16.

1920 – Poland annexes Vilnius. The Lithuanian capital is transferred to Kaunas.

1939 – Lithuanian independence comes to an end with the secret signing of the Molotov-Ribbentropp pact which carves up Europe into Nazi and Soviet control. The USSR restores Vilnius as capital and establishes military bases there before annexing all of Lithuania.

1990 – The Supreme Council announces the restoration of Lithuanian independence on March 11.

2004 – Lithuanian becomes a member of NATO and the EU.

2009 – Lithuania celebrates the anniversary of the first written mention of its name, and the capital Vilnius takes on the year-long mantle of “European Capital of Culture”.
And now

Vilnius is a fascinating mix of tradition and innovation. Its entire Old Town is a UNESCO World Heritage site thanks to the city’s abundance of beautifully preserved historic architecture. But Vilnius is also a place of elegant skyscrapers, state-of-the-art business centres and gleaming new sports and entertainment complexes.

Few European capitals enjoy such harmony. While the Old Town is an elegant cityscape of red russet-tiled rooftops and baroque spires, the business district just across the river Neris boasts the most impressive ensemble of modern architecture in the Baltic States.

The Lithuanian capital is a cosmopolitan place where one can hear Lithuanian, Russian, Polish, English and many other European languages on the street and in bars and restaurants. Yet, as with its architecture, Vilnius enjoys an amazing degree of harmony in both its cultural and social life.

Thanks to the city’s history, the people of Vilnius have inherited a tolerant and laidback attitude. They like a good time, which is why the Old Town is always alive with the sound of music, laughter and animated conversation.

It’s this harmonious combination of old and new, tradition and modernity, which makes Vilnius such a remarkable place.

Vilnius feels like a small town because its streets are so beautifully spread out, but it is also a modern metropolis. The main shopping and business districts offer free Wi-Fi access so don’t be surprised to see someone checking their email in the shadow of a 17th-century building. A Lithuanian taxi company was the first in Europe to install multimedia consoles in its cars, so you can even surf the web on your way from the airport to the hotel. As you see, Vilnius comes with all possible mod cons.

There is no shortage of things to do in Vilnius. For culturally-minded people there is enormous array of wonderful art galleries and fascinating speciality museums. Concerts are also hugely popular with music-loving Lithuanians, from big-name pop acts, to top-quality classic performances, to charming folk music recitals, to jovial jazz jams.

There is something even for the most insatiable shopaholic – from massive shopping centres to charming little boutiques.

Vilnius’ nightlife is renowned for its heady blend of relaxed pubs, trendy bars and high-energy nightclubs. If sports is more your thing, however, you could take a jet flight, go canoeing or even take a hot air balloon ride over the city.

From exploring the hidden courtyard yards of the Old Town, to dining in one of the city’s numerous top-class restaurants, your only problem will be how to fit so much into your time.

The restored sanctuary was given a special honour in the 18th century by Czar Peter I, who during his visit presented a gift of the colours taken from the Swedes in the Great Northern War. Vilnius is easy to get to, however you decide to travel there. The Vilnius International Airport is situated a mere 7 km from the city centre. The port city of Klaipėda is well-served by ferry, and has excellent rail and bus connections with Vilnius. Distances between places are generally small in Lithuania, and it is relatively quick and straightforward to travel around by car, especially between major towns and cities. The roads in Lithuania are the best in the Baltic States and are all toll-free. Vilnius is also a very convenient city to get around thanks in part to its highly-developed public transport system. Most of the main attractions are concentrated in the city centre and are within close proximity of nearly all the major hotels.

3.6 Guiding regulations

A guide is a real expert of his native town who shares his knowledge about the town with guests during a trip. It’s necessary to know that not every connoisseur of the town has the right to guide and be paid for it. This profession is legalized by the Law of Tourism of the Republic of Lithuania. It mandates that only persons, who have special licenses given by the Lithuanian State Department of Tourism under the Ministry of Economy of the Republic of Lithuania, have the right to work as guides.

Professional and qualified multi-language guides can be hired at most of the incoming tour operators (see 3.1), excursion operators (3.2) or Vilnius Tourist Information Centre (pstr. 7).

Places where only licensed guiding is allowed:
- Vilnius Old Town;
- Lithuanian Art Museum, Didžioji str. 4/Bokšto str. 5, and its branches;
- Vilnius Picture Gallery, Didžioji str. 4;
- Radvila palace, Vilniaus str. 22;
- Museum of Applied Art, Arsenalo str. 3A;
- The National Museum of Lithuania, Arsenalo str. 1, and its branches;
- Gediminas Tower, Arsenalo str. 5;
- The Bastion of Vilnius Defence Wall, Bokšto str. 20/18;
- The Palace of the Grand Dukes of Lithuania, Katedros a. 3;
- House of Signatories of Lithuanian Independence, Pilies str. 26;
- The Vilna Gaon Jewish State Museum, Pamėnkalnio str. 12, and its branches:
  - Paneriai Memorial Museum, Agrastų str. 17;

4.1 Hotel classification system

The following list of hotels is organized by a European Hotelstars Union system from five star superior to one star. Guest houses are not rated by stars.

The European Hotelstars Union system is based on the earlier German hotelstars system that had widely influenced the hotel classifications in central Europe, with five stars and a Superior mark to flag extras. Instead of a strict minimum in room size and required shower facilities there is a catalogue of criteria with 21 qualifications encompassing 270 elements, where some are mandatory for a star and others optional. The main criteria are in quality management, wellness and sleeping accommodation. In the catalogue of criteria each entry is associated with a number of points - each Hotelstars level requires a minimal sum of points besides some criteria being obligatory for the level. The minimum requirement for the Superior flag requires the same sum of points as for the next Hotelstars level which however was not awarded due to at least one obligatory requirement being left out.

4.2 City zones

0. Outside Vilnius
The territory outside the city; not marked on the scheme.

1. Old Town
The very heart of the city. Pedestrian streets, antique shops, many restaurants and hotels are situated here. Accommodation options vary from the cheapest students’ style lodgings to the best rated international chain hotels. This zone also includes Užupis, known as Vilnius Montmartre.

2. Upper midtown
This area is spread out over both sides of the river Neris and is bordered by two major business areas. Gedimino prospektas is a prestigious retail street and the skyscrapers of Konstitucijos prospektas form the new heart of the city’s business district.

3. Lower midtown
Previously a residential area, the Lower Midtown includes a business district, residential flats and Vingis Park, a popular place with morning joggers and venue for all sorts of major concerts.

4. Žvėrynas
This attractive residential area is shaped like a triangle and is well-known for its tranquil atmosphere and attractive houses. This prestigious district has several hotels and family-run guest houses.

5. Station district
After the renovation of the central station, this area has changed dramatically and some excellent hotels now operate in the vicinity. It’s conveniently close to both the main train and bus stations.

6. Airport
This is a good option for those only visiting Vilnius very briefly. The surroundings are pleasant, the city centre close by and there are several good hotels and restaurants.

7. Antakalnis
This suburb is relatively close to the city centre and is surrounded by forests and the river Neris but it only has a few accommodation options.

8. Residential area
Built during the Soviet era and filled with characteristic block architecture, this vast suburban area nonetheless boasts several hotels ranging from economy to high end.

9. Rasos and Naujininkai
This area mainly consists of large apartment blocks and industrial premises. There are some small new hotels and decent restaurants in the vicinity.

10. Industrial district
There is one hotel, a few cafes and private rooms for rent in this somewhat out-of-the-way location.

Art and culture has always been an integral part of life in Vilnius. When the Grand Duke Gediminas invited merchants, artisans and Jews and Christians alike to settle in Vilnius in 1323, he laid the foundations for the city’s multi-ethnic diversity, spirit of tolerance and open-mindedness. Ever since then the arts have constantly flourished and the city has a proud tradition of artistic excellence. Vilnius boasts numerous museums and galleries. Its theatres are world-famous, while its musicians and orchestras are also internationally distinguished. Not a day goes by in Vilnius without some major festival, cultural event or concert taking place.

6.6.1 Geographical Centre of Europe
Tourist Information Centre and Museum
Girijos k., Vilnius raj.
Tel +370 5 200 1646

In 1989 the National Geographic Institute of France pinpointed the centre of Europe to a spot 26 km away from Vilnius, in the direction of Molėtai, near the village of Purnuškės. Touch the memorial spot in the centre of the continent and then visit the Tourism Information Centre to get a personal certificate verifying that you have been to the Centre of Europe! The open air territory is open 24 hours a day and admission is free. The museum is open from Monday to Friday from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

6.6.2 Europos parkas

The park was established in 1991 with the aim of embellishing the geographical centre of Europe with works of art. The park covers an area of 55 hectares and contains more than 100 sculptures by artists from more than 70 countries. Among them are works by famous contemporary artists such as S. LeWitt, M. Abakanowicz and D. Oppenheim. Each year new sculptures are installed in the park by artists from a range of backgrounds. The park is an immensely popular place for a cultural pilgrimage and attracts over 60,000 visitors a year.

6.6.3 Trakai
Trakai is a small town in southeast Lithuania which is situated 27 km from Vilnius. It is built on a narrow peninsula dividing lakes Galvė, Lake Totoriškiai and Luka. These lakes form part of an interconnected system of 30 large and small lakes. Trakai itself is a genuinely archaic town on water. It’s also a beautiful place for leisure and relaxation. During the 13th century Trakai and its neighbouring environs was the administrative centre of the country. According to the chronicles, Lithuanian Grand Duke Gediminas decided to build a castle there after a successful hunt. The capital was moved from Kernavė to Trakai. The town was first mentioned in a German text in 1377. Settlements quickly began to develop around the newly built castle and by the time Vytautas the Great became the ruler of the Grand Duchy of Lithuania, Trakai was established as the country’s political and administrative centre and soon after that it gained its town rights.

The Church of the Visitation of the Virgin Mary
Sody str. 8, LT-21106 Trakai
This parish church was built in 1409 under the rule of Vytautas the Great. The main altar of the church contains an image of the Virgin Mary and is said to have been a place of miracles. There has been a festival dedicated to the Virgin Mary ever since 1603 which is attended by huge crowds of people who come from all around the country.

Karaims’ Settlement
Karaims’ Ethnographical exhibition
Karaima str. 22, Trakai
Tel +370 528 55286
One of the most famous sights in Trakai is Karaim st. because its old buildings bear witness to the extraordinary history of the aforementioned Karaims. The Karaims built their houses with three windows facing the street, each one of which served a specific purpose: one was for Duke Vytautas, one was for God and one was for the Karaim himself.

6.6.4 Kernavė – UNESCO World Heritage Site
State Cultural Reserve of Kernavė

Kernavė – UNESCO World Heritage Sight
Kernavė, which is situated close to Vilnius, was the first capital of Lithuania. The first settlement in the area appeared as early as 9000 BC when it is believed the settlers came to the river Nėris from what is now Kaunas in the southwest. Hunters, gatherers and fisherman gathered in temporary encampments along the river. The museum shows the history of Kernavė from prehistoric times through to the 18th century. There is a chronological display of historic artefacts from the Stone Age, the Iron Age and the early Middle Ages, as well as a map of the archaeological reservation and photos of archaeological digs, among many other interesting items. Every year on July 6 (the anniversary of the coronation of King Mindaugas) the Kernavė Cultural Reserve hosts an international festival of archaeology.

6.6.5 Sudervė
Stone sculpture park “Vilnoja”
M. Zdziechovskio str. 27, Sudervė, Vilniaus raj.
Tel +370 687 34244
info@stoneart.lt, www.stoneart.lt
The Stone Sculpture Park in the grounds of the hotel Vilnoja was established in 2001 when eight famous Lithuanian sculptors joined together and created the first strikingly original works. Lithuania has an outstanding tradition of sculpture which is amply demonstrated by these humorous, mysterious and thought-provoking pieces of art. International stone sculpture symposiums take place in the park every summer, while a photo gallery of the sculptures is available on the park’s website.

6.6.6 Drukininkai
Grūtas Park
Grūto k., Drukininkai

info@grutoparkas.lt, www.grutoparkas.lt
Statues of Lenin, Stalin and Dzerzhinsky once stood proudly in town hall squares, parks and in front of train stations throughout Lithuania. Now these tired old sculptures have a new home in Grūtas Park, along with numerous Soviet soldiers, kolkhozniks and other members of the proletariat. Their picturesque forest home is near the Lithuanian spa resort of Drukininkai and is surely the most impressive ensemble of Soviet sculpture in the world. It’s a fascinating experience and valuable historic record of how the Soviet authorities used sculpture as propaganda.

6.6.7 Rumšiškės
The village of Rumšiškės is situated 13km east of Kaunas on the right side of the river Nemunas. The fortress mounds and barrow graves indicate that the site was inhabited in ancient times. Numerous bronze artefacts dating from the 13th – 16th century were discovered in the barrow graves during excavations carried out between 1953 and 1963.
