1. Vilnius, Lithuania

Total cost: £144.77

The capital of Lithuania has dominated the latest ranking, offering the cheapest transfer from the airport and city centre (£1.77) and free entry to a top heritage attraction.

“Vilnius's bustling cafe culture and medieval heritage are a wonderful match,” says Telegraph Travel’s Adrian Bridge.

“Enjoy Lithuania's capital city at one of the nicest times of year – early autumn. Spend time wandering along the wonderfully atmospheric cobbled streets of the largest medieval old town in central and eastern Europe; take in an architectural heritage that blends elements of baroque, gothic, renaissance and Russian; and join young locals in all-night party mode.”
